

Valentines' School of Telegraphy!

Offers to all who are desirous of acquiring a profitable trade, thorough instruction, and through its connections with RAILROADS and TELEGRAPH COMPANIES, immediate employment for its graduates, where promotion is only limited by merit. The following letter is from a former resident of Lima, Rock county. Since it was written we have sent Mr. Teetshorn about thirty more operators.

GREEN BAY, WINONA & ST. PAUL RAILROAD
Train Dispatcher's Office,
GREEN BAY WIS., Sept 22, 1885.

Valentine Bros.
Dear Sirs: In reply to yours of the 16th inst., would say that during the past ten years this company has employed about 150 of your graduates. About thirty-five of them are now in its employ as agents and operators, giving good satisfaction, the others have left us at different times to accept positions on other railroads. We shall continue to read them to accept positions when ever we need them. In view of the certainty of a great revival of railroad building in 1886, I know of no business which offers equal opportunities for advancement. Being myself a graduate of your school, I heartily recommend it to all who wish to learn telegraphy.

Yours truly,
F. E. TEETSHORN, Chief Train Dispatcher.

An examination of our school will convince one that our course of instruction is far more valuable than a commercial college course, because we teach our students a trade and then place where they have every opportunity to work their way upward. We have supplied more than a thousand operators for the Western Union Telegraph Company, and as many more for different Railroad Companies. Call and see us or write for our circulars.

VALENTINE BROS. Janesville, Wis.

THE SACRED DUST OF ONE OF AMERICA'S GREATEST

Taken Back to the Soil from Whence He Started on His Career of Honor—Salmon P. Chase's Remains Deposited in Spring Grove, Cincinnati—His Life Briefly Sketches—A Loving Daughter's Ambition Gratified.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 15.—The remains of Salmon P. Chase, the statesman and jurist, arrived here Thursday morning at 9 o'clock, and were taken to the Spring Grove cemetery, Washington & Baltimore railway. They were met at the station by a committee of well-known citizens, headed by Mayor Smith, and a cortege formed to escort the honored dust to Music hall. The first carriage contained Governor Foraker, Mayor Arthur Smith, Atty. Gen. John C. Foster and Albert H. Hadstead. The second carriage contained the members of the supreme court of the state, Hon. T. F. Minshall, M. O. Follett, Sylvester Owens, and W. T. Spencer. The third was occupied by Hon. Alphonso Tate, Hon. A. P. Sprague, Hon. M. P. Force, and Hon. W. S. Greenleaf. The fourth, fifth and sixth carriages contained representatives of the Bar, association and of the chamber of commerce of Cincinnati.

The rail-bearers were Gen. W. T. Sherman; W. S. Greenleaf, Cincinnati; Allen G. Thurman, Columbus; Hiram Barney, New York; M. H. Seal, Cincinnati; Whitelaw Reid, New York; John Corbin, New York; Cassius M. Clay, Kentucky; Jay Cooke, W. M. Everts, New York; A. F. Perry, Cincinnati; W. D. Bickham, Dayton; Robert D. Garrett, Baltimore; James M. McMillan, Indianapolis; Tughi McCulloch, Baltimore; Alphonso Tate, Cincinnati.

Arriving at Music hall the casket was borne down the center aisle and placed on a raised platform in front of the entrance of the stage, and the seven colored coffins laid out on either side of the remains as a guard to the casket. As the casket was being lowered into the crypt, the casket was surrounded by a large number of people, and the casket was lowered into the crypt.

Music hall was tastefully and appropriately decorated for the occasion, and a vast throng had assembled. The order of services was as follows:

Prayer.—By the College Choir.
Selection.—By Justice Stanley Matthews.
Benediction.

Final—Organ.
As the strains of the organ died away Hon. Ben Butler, of the congressional committee, stepped forward, and addressing Governor Foraker, returned the remains to the state.

Governor Foraker then responded in behalf of the state. The people of Ohio, he said, loved him in life and held his memory in reverence. Every generation has its heroes, but not since Washington had America produced a man superior to Mr. Chase in the history of the world. It is with proud feelings that we receive and welcome his ashes to Ohio.

This was followed by prayer, delivered by Rev. Dr. Hall, of New York, at the conclusion of which the choir rendered the "Chorus of Angels" from "Psalms."

Ex-Governor Hendon then began a fervid, eloquent panegyric upon the private character and public services of Mr. Chase. The speech, which occupied considerably more than an hour in its delivery, emphasizing with especial fullness and force the religious element of Mr. Chase's private life. He said that Mr. Chase was a man of a spotless private life. It is with proud feelings that we receive and welcome his ashes to Ohio.

After appropriate remarks, Justice Stanley Matthews delivered a thoughtful and impressive speech. The benediction was given by Rev. Dr. Hall and thus ended the services. Then the way to Spring Grove was taken.

THE CHASE BURIAL LOT.
Up. The casket remained seated until the general party had left the hall. Mr. Chase, leaning upon the arm of Governor Foraker, was the first of the family to follow the casket. Then came Mrs. Chase, followed by the children, and the family party.

The casket was lowered into the crypt, and the family party followed. The casket was lowered into the crypt, and the family party followed.

OVERWHELMED BY FLOOD.

CONFIRMATION OF THE FRIGHTFUL DISASTER AT SABINE PASS.

A List of Dead Numbering Over Sixty and the Apprehension That the Half Is Not Told.

The Danger Not Appreciated Until All Hope Was Cut Off—Heartrending Scenes When the Dreadful Truth Was Known—Five Lives Lost in a Late Collision—The Storm at Chicago and Elsewhere.

HOUSTON, Tex., Oct. 15.—Two citizens of the town of Sabine Pass arrived in Beaumont Thursday bearing news of terrible loss of life and destruction of property in that city by the severe storm which is now prevailing. They say the waters began to invade the town from the gulf, and the lake to gather about 10 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, and rose with unprecedented rapidity. The imminent danger was seen, but until it was too late to escape from the town. When safety by flight was recognized as being out of the question, people who were situated so that they could, betook themselves to houses and resorts adjacent to be safe.

The water kept rising, and between 3 and 4 o'clock the small houses began to yield to the reckless forces of the waves, and not only moved from their foundations, but turned on their sides and tops. A little later the larger houses began to give way and lay dead by drowning scenes in store for every citizen of the place.

With the yielding of the smaller houses, several persons who had remained in them were drowned, and when the larger residences and the business places began to crumble the fatality began rapidly to increase.

The following incomplete list of the drowned was obtained by our correspondent here from the two gentlemen who came in Thursday: Miss Maria Chambers, Jim Vandy and family of six, wife of Otto Brown and two children, Homer King, wife and children, Mrs. Junker and son, Mrs. Eganney and family of five, Mrs. Stewart, daughter and son, a man by the name of Wilson, Mrs. Arthur McElroy, Mrs. McDonald, daughter and grandson, Frank McElroy and family, Mrs. Lusk, Mrs. Lusk and family, and about twenty-five colored people, names not given.

As will be seen there are over sixty in the above list, and among them are some from the families of well-known business men of the city. There are many other families, however, living in the city, and it is feared that whole families in different parts of the city have been swept away without leaving a name or vestige to indicate their terrible fate.

It is said that the situation during the latter part of Wednesday afternoon suggested a description. The indications of a severe storm by the people, looking face to face at death, and realizing that there was no escape, the dying cries of the women, audible but rendered almost noiseless by the roar of the mad sea; the hoarse voice of help from the shore, and the sight of the men, all combined made a scene too terrible to be described.

On the strength of the news, the men of Beaumont are getting together to give form to a school of relief. The men to act in the matter is making some confusion and sending to some extent the consumption of a well-ventilated scheme. ## Arrests.

—Are you registered?
—Politicians are busy to-day.
—The cold snap hasn't come yet.
—Every voter should take care that his name is on the registry list.
—The reduction of rates seems to have had very little depressing effect upon Ticket-agent Potter.
—The man who says "Is this hot enough for you?" will now have to find some other way to make a fool of himself.
—Rock River Encampment No. 3, I. O. O. F., assembled in regular semi-monthly meeting this evening at Odd Fellows' hall.
—The Odd Fellows will hold another special meeting this evening at Odd Fellows' hall. All Odd Fellows are requested to be present.
—The funeral of Phineas W. Case will occur Sunday afternoon at the First M. E. church at 2 o'clock p. m., Rev. Thos. Walker officiating.
—People's Lodge No. 400, Independent Order of Good Templars, will assemble in regular weekly session this evening—lodge room in the Court (Street) M. E. church block.

—Railroad tickets at three cents a mile are now the regular thing on both the Chicago & Northwestern and the Chicago Milwaukee & St. Paul roads. The change took effect to-day.

—Oliver Branch Lodge No. 36, Ancient Order of United Workmen, will assemble in regular semi-monthly session this evening—lodge room in the Leppin block, East Milwaukee street.

—It should be borne in mind by every voter that unless his name in the registry list as published, he must appear before the board next week, in order to be able to vote at the coming election.

—A display of fruit such as cannot be seen outside of Chicago is that of J. A. Dennison. The grapes, pears, apples, cranberries, dates and figs that are piled up in his show window would tempt a hermit back to the joys of earth.

—The unpleasant night did not prevent the dance of the Young Men's Quadrille club from being a success, and a most enjoyable time was had by all who were present. There is every probability that the parties to be given by these young men will be among the features of the winter.

—Yesterday afternoon the doors of Dorrance & Rice's grocery, on South Main street, were closed. It was announced that the business was to go into the hands of A. O. Rice, and this proved to be the case, as this morning the store was reopened with Mr. Rice in charge.

The selling out of the stock was at once begun, and it is understood that the intention is to close up the affairs of the establishment as soon as the goods are disposed of.

—Rockford Register: The Artesian well is 1,915 feet deep, and at a meeting of the fire and water committee, held Monday evening, it was decided to continue the drilling until the underlying granite is reached, as the flow is constantly and perceptibly increasing. For ten days the flow of water has been so strong that the flood shipped off by the drill has been brought to the surface, obviating the use of the sand pump. Driller Little says No. 3 will be the best well yet sunk, and indeed is, at this moment.

—To-morrow, last day of the opening and sale at the New York Saving Store. Ladies are cordially invited to visit our millinery room. The display of trimmed hats and bonnets will no doubt be found of interest to all who are contemplating purchasing or not. It is often more satisfactory to select a hat ready trimmed than to leave an order. Our stock is not so extensive that any taste may be gratified, while prices will be found most reasonable. Our special offerings in underwear, hosiery, gloves, linens, towels, etc., are meeting with usual liberal appreciation of our efforts. Don't forget that we are issuing discount checks good for 10 percent reduction on future purchases. NEW YORK SAVING STORE.

—Judge Patton's charge to the jury in the Munn riot case was finished yesterday afternoon and the matter was then given to the jury. About five o'clock the jurors came back for further instructions. They could not decide as to what extent Munn was guilty, although each was satisfied that there had been a riot and that the defendant had been engaged. If it was allowable to find him guilty of a less offense than the one charged they would be likely to agree. The district attorney suggested that they might find him guilty and recommend that money be shown by the court. This was objected to by the defendant's attorney, and the jury retired the second time after Judge Patton had announced that there was only one charge against Munn—that of participating in a riot. If it had been proven that there was a riot and that the defendant took part, an argument should not be difficult to reach. Even this supplementary charge did not have the desired effect, and half an hour later the twelve returned, unable to agree. The ballots had ranged from eleven and one to nine and three, the majority each time being for conviction. October 23th is the date set for the new trial.

LOOKING FOR A SENATOR.

The Rock County Republicans in Session this Afternoon.

How the Various Candidates Stand in the Race.

Notes of the Convention.

The republican convention for the purpose of nominating a state senator opened at one o'clock and was called to order by Mr. C. Miner, of Jansville. Mr. C. E. Lee, of Evansville, was elected chairman, and E. F. Nowlan, of Jansville, secretary.

The following committee on credentials was appointed by the chair: Daniel Johnson, B. F. Carpenter, W. W. Clark, W. H. Stark, S. G. Colley.

The committee found that the town of Clinton presented two sets of delegates and the committee asked for an explanation. Mr. Mayhew, chairman of the first call for a caucus, and Mr. Conley and Mr. Stoner, defended the second call. Mr. Stoner also explained that the first call was regular, and that there was no objection for a second caucus. Mr. Jones, of Clinton also spoke in favor of the original call. The committee on credentials then made the following report, which was adopted after making some minor corrections:

—People's Lodge No. 400, Independent Order of Good Templars, will assemble in regular weekly session this evening—lodge room in the Court (Street) M. E. church block.

—Railroad tickets at three cents a mile are now the regular thing on both the Chicago & Northwestern and the Chicago Milwaukee & St. Paul roads. The change took effect to-day.

BOLD BANK ROBBERY.

A Desperate and Successful Dash for Gold.

The Ashland Banks Robbed in Daylight of $6,000.

Escape of the Robbers.

An Ashland, Wis., special dispatch to the Milwaukee Sentinel, under date of October 14th, gives the following details of the successful robbery of the Ashland bank: "This morning this city was startled by the report that L. O. Wilmoth had been assailed in his bank by two bold robbers and robbed of a large sum of money. He tells the following story of the daring robbery: 'I arrived at my bank at about 9 o'clock, and at once opened the vaults and safe, preparatory for the day's business. At about 10 o'clock, while at work at my desk, two men entered and in an instant I was facing two revolvers, while a determined voice said: 'Keep your mouth shut.' Before I could defend myself one of the men had entered the apartment back of the counters and seized me."

An attempt was made to tie his hands, but in the struggle Mr. Wilmoth mastered his man; but the other man joined him, and placing his revolver to the bank's head, threatened to shoot him if he resisted further. Both of the robbers then seized him and thrust him into the open vault and closed and locked the door upon him. They then filled the outer safe and gathered up the cash that was laid over for the business transactions of the day, amounting to about $6,000, and then departed.

Soon after the robbers left, a lady entered the bank and found by pounding on the door, Mr. Wilmoth made his way known. She immediately gave the alarm and he was released from the vault, and Sheriff Tolford and Chief-of-Police Schwartz were at once notified of the robbery and started in pursuit of the desperadoes, who have up to a late hour this evening managed to elude the officers.

A reward of $500 has been offered for the capture of the robbers. They are described by Mrs. Wilmoth as follows: One is a tall man, dark complexion, weighing about 160 pounds; the other was a light build, light complexioned man, weighing about 120 pounds. Both had small mustaches and wore brown clothes and elench hats. They were about 25 years of age.

Mr. Wilmoth stated that about $4,000 in money and several certificates of deposit were taken from the safe, besides other papers. It is certain that the robbers were professionals and have been in the city for some time past. The robbery created great excitement and all the roads leading from the city are well-guarded, and should the robbers endeavor to make their escape by one of them, they will certainly be captured.

Chief-of-Police Schwartz, who arrived last night from a long tramp in search of the robbers, states that in his opinion they will certainly be captured before to-morrow night.

THE NEW UNIFORMS.

Many hints to the "Purple and Fine Line" That the Guards Expect to Assume.

In the matter of new uniforms for the Guards nothing is known definitely except that they are to have them. There has been much talk among the men and the general opinion is that, whatever they do adopt, it will be different from anything in the state. Among those who took part in the Atlanta encampment the preference is for something similar to what was seen among the southern companies. One that meets with considerable favor consists of a white bear-skin cap, a coat of red mottled trimmed with either buff or gold, and white corduroy knee breeches. The effect of this would be striking to say the least.

Some of the boys are quite enthusiastic over the proposed pattern while others think that something should be chosen less conspicuous.

Whatever is decided upon the company must also be provided with "regulation blue," the same as is required all through the state. Part of the money for these suits is furnished by the government. They would be for regular service while the others would be worn at dress parades and in fancy drills and tournaments.

At the meeting last night eleven new members were admitted. The annual party was fixed at November 30th, and the following committees were appointed: Invitation and music—W. P. Sayles, J. G. Rexford, D. K. Jeffries.

Decorations—H. V. Allen, C. E. Curtis, Fred Sperry, Al. Shaler.

Advertising—Charles Sloan, N. Z. La Grange.

Fairbank's celebrated Laundry Soap. A combination of purest washing ingredients.

—Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Woodruff have returned from their wedding trip.

—Henry Sieber, state factory inspector, of the Wisconsin bureau of statistics, was in the city to-day.
